Additional Lyrics

- The old house is still standing tho' the paint is cracked and dry,
And there's that old oak tree that I used to play on.
Down the lane I walk with my sweet Mary, hair of gold and lips like cherries;
It's good to touch the Green Green Grass Of Home.
- Then I awake and look around me at the grey walls that surround me,
And I realize that I was only dreaming,
For there's a guard and there's a sad old Padre, arm in arm we'll walk at daybreak,
Again I'll touch the Green Green Grass Of Home.

CHORUS:

Yes, they'll all come to see me in the shade of that old oak tree,
As they lay me 'neath the Green Green Grass Of Home.

I Still Miss Someone

This musical score is for the song "I Still Miss Someone". It consists of ten staves of music, each featuring a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The time signature is common time (C). The music is written in a simplified style, with notes represented by diagonal slashes. Above the staves, the chords C, D, and G are indicated for the first three staves, and then the sequence C, D, G is repeated for the remaining seven staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. The second staff begins with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The tenth staff ends with a double bar line and the instruction "D.S." (Da Capo).

MABELLENE

MABELLENE was Berry's first Chess record and first hit. Berry presented it to Leonard Chess as IDA RED, his variant of a hillbilly tune, with a rockabilly beat. Chess suggested a "bigger beat" and (according to pianist Johnny Johnson) chose the name MABELLENE from a popular hair cream (prior to recording Berry had been a hairstylist).

Notice the distorted guitar sound; Berry was playing a fat hollow-body Gibson ES-350T. Later records featured a clearer sound with reverb added. The country-style backup — root in the bass/chord — fifth in the bass/chord — is also atypical. The opening guitar riff is based on the barred triad pattern mentioned in the Introduction.

VERSE

I took my loved one over cross the tracks
So she can hear my man a-wail a sax
I must admit they have a rockin' band
Man, they were goin' like a hurricane! That's why I go for that... (CHORUS)

Way down South they gave a jubilee
The jokey folks they had a jamboree
They're drinking homebrew from a water cup
The folks are dancing till they're all shook up! And started playing that... (CHORUS)

Don't care to hear them play a tango
I'm in no mood to take a mambo
It's way too early for the congo
So keep on rockin' that piano! And let me hear some of that... (CHORUS)

G [INTRO]

The musical score is written for guitar in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It begins with a guitar introduction labeled 'G [INTRO]' consisting of five measures of eighth and quarter notes. This is followed by a series of chords: C, D, C, G, and C, each with a four-measure rhythmic pattern of eighth notes. The score then transitions to a bridge section labeled 'C [BRIDGE]' with a four-measure rhythmic pattern. After the bridge, there is a section with three endings: '1.' (four measures), '2. G' (four measures), and '3. G (to Bridge)' (four measures). The score concludes with a 'Coda' section (four measures) and a final 'G [INTRO]' section (four measures).

Wooly Bully - Wooly Bully - Wooly Bully.

3. Matty told Hatty
That's the thing to do.
Get yo' someone really
To pull the wool with you.
Wooly Bully - Wooly Bully.
Wooly Bully - Wooly Bully - Wooly Bully.
